Conference Code of Conduct

In completing your registration form, it is duly accepted that you have read and understood the Conference Code of Conduct and will be expected to honour this code at the conference.

You are a Representative of your Community

Your personal conduct, both in and out of the conference, reflects upon your community and it is your responsibility to safeguard the reputation and pride of all Aboriginal people.

It's a Matter of Respect

You are a guest and you can go a long way towards ensuring yourself and the other delegates a warm and memorable welcome through a simple show of respect.

- Respect for all the participants of the conference.
- Respect for the social/cultural values of youth from other communities.
- Respect for regulations and standards set by the organizing body and host community.
- Respect for people of the host organization (staff, volunteers, guests, presenters, service personnel).

Curfew

We ask that ALL participants and chaperones respect the conference curfew of 11:30pm. Participants are asked to be at their accommodations by the curfew time.

Recreational Activities

In recreational activities, participants will represent their community with dignity, personal integrity, and spirit of good sportsmanship and fair play. Please bring proper clothing and shoes; personal equipment is optional.

Chaperone(s)

There must be one chaperone for every five participants ages 14 to 17 years and he/she is:

1. Must be 21 years of age or older.
2. Responsible for the safety, welfare and conduct of their youth at all times.
3. Expected to be a positive role model and set positive examples to all youth.
4. Expected to assist youth in locating workshops, arriving in a timely manner and ensuring youth remain in their workshops until the session is complete.
5. Be in attendance with their youth during all evening activities as there is a 'no re-entry' policy once performances begin. This includes opening night entertainment, the youth talent showcase and the Dance.

Disciplinary Policies and Procedures

THERE WILL BE ABSOLUTELY ZERO TOLERANCE FOR DRUG AND ALCOHOL USE BY DELEGATES, CHAPERONES AND GUESTS.

- Smoking of tobacco and other products (including e-cigarettes) is prohibited on all premises and facilities. The exception to this policy is the cultural and ceremonial use of Aboriginal traditional medicines such as tobacco, sage, cedar, and sweet grass.
- Weapons brought into the conference sites and/or criminal activity of any kind will not be tolerated.
- Offenders of the Code of Conduct will have all privileges suspended, along with their group, and will be asked to leave the conference.

Chaperone Information Brief

General Overview of Conference:

The Gathering Our Voices Aboriginal Youth Conference is hosted by the BC Association of Aboriginal Friendship Centres (BCAAFC) and their Provincial Aboriginal Youth Council (BCAAFC - PAYC). The Conference will be held from March 21-24, 2016 in Victoria, BC at the Victoria Conference Centre and other venues.

Up to 1500 youth (14-24years) as well as chaperones, presenters and guests will network and learn new techniques and skills in workshops, share knowledge through cultural activities, witness performances by talented individuals, explore career and education possibilities and participate in sports and recreational activities.

Rules and Respect:

Please see the full conference code of conduct on page 2. Always remember that youth and chaperones must be respectful in every sense and that you are representing your communities to the best of your abilities.

What to Expect:

Expect to have a lot of fun, be active and learn a lot from the whole conference experience.

Responsibility of Chaperones:

Please make sure that your designated youth are with you AT ALL TIMES when not attending workshops. We request you do not simply drop off your youth at the conference site and leave them alone. Note that this applies to all evening activities, including the dance, where chaperones are expected to arrive and remain in attendance with their youth until the group leaves as a whole.

Victoria is one of BC's larger cities and it is important to keep a very close eye on your youth. We also want to make sure that the youth are going to the workshops and if they are not participating that they are with you.

You are responsible for your youth delegates at all times. Remember that you are a role model for the youth and should conduct yourself in a manner accordingly.

Speaking to Youth before Arrival at Conference:

We are asking all chaperones to please speak to their youth before arrival in Victoria and to review the code of conduct (page2). If you could please let your youth know what to expect at the conference, how to behave, how to be respectful, debrief on curfew, as well as rules and regulations that would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your time and consideration and let's make the 14th Annual Gathering Our Voices Aboriginal Youth Conference run smoothly and go off without a hitch!

For Further Information please contact:

Toll Free: 1-800-990-2432
Fax: 250-388-5502

Visit our website often for up-dates.

<http://gatheringourvoices.bcaafc.com>

There will be no alcohol and drug use tolerated by YOUTH or CHAPERONES at any time on your way to the conference, during the conference or on your way home from the conference. We are all trying to set a good example for our youth and promote healthy living in our communities.

This Registration Package contains valuable contact information.

We recommend you bring it with you when you come to Prince George.

Honour an Aboriginal Youth

The BC Association of Aboriginal Friendship Centres will recognize Aboriginal Youth Champions. If you know an Aboriginal youth (ages 14-24) who has made an outstanding commitment or achievement please nominate them to receive an Aboriginal Youth Champion award at the 2015 Gathering Our Voices Aboriginal Youth Conference.
